LONG SERVICE AWARDS

I am sorry to say that the number of Societies applying for Long Service Awards has declined over the last few months. Please make every effort to check your Society Records to see how many people are due awards. They are intended to show your Society's appreciation of the work your members have done for them.

Before you complete the form, may I suggest that you look at the reverse of the form, as all the necessary requirements about the Awards is there. Recently I have had a large number of forms with insufficient information being provided. It wastes considerable time having to return the forms, so please make sure that all the details supplied are correct. The time requested before the presentation is to allow for any errors to be rectified. The date of previous awards should be provided, and can be obtained from your Society Records. Current prices are to be found in the Regional Magazine.

I look forward to receiving many more applications during the next few months, and for the remainder of the year.

Mary Hobbs, Awards Secretary.

We record with sadness but fond memories the death at the end of February of Michael Peters, hardworking, long-standing member of St. Ives Operatic Society and of Barry Casely, dancer, director and choreographer for many companies in Exeter & East Devon.
